The Great Lakes Fleet of the CDSOA announces the annual winter meeting will be held in historic Oswego, New York on the 11th of March, 2006, beginning at 1300.

Home of the Oswego Maritime Foundation and other attractions, Oswego has been a major seafaring port on Lake Ontario for a very long time and has some very interesting and entertaining venues.

Please check out: www.oswegony.org/ for more information on hotels, sight seeing and general fun to be had in Oswego or see the list provided below.

This years venue is "Coleman's Irish Pub" located on the water in Oswego, New York. www.colemansirishpub.com will provide you with directions to the restaurant.

Guest speakers and activities will be announced after the first of the year.

For more information and reservations, contact Great Lakes Fleet Captain Mike Ritenour <lavida_NOSPAM@seascan.com>, don't forget to remove "_NOSPAM_" from the e-mail address before clicking on Send> and watch for updates here and on the message board.

Oswego John has prepared the following list of available hotels in and around Oswego. (My personal favorite is to book on the river). Thanks OJ for the time and effort.
