This will be a "Smell the roses," or "Where the wind blows" cruise. It will be a mostly relaxed, decide-as-we-go cruise with decisions based on the desires of the participants, the weather, and any other factors we want to consider.

It is certain to include motoring and sailing beautiful boats in scenic, uncrowded cruising grounds; exploring small, cruiser friendly towns; and enjoying the companionship of fellow Cape Dory sailors. It will also give new cruisers a taste of traveling the ICW.

The cruise will gather in Norfolk, VA. We will go through the Dismal Swamp Canal, stopping to spend a night at the Visitor's Center and then proceeding down the Pasquotank River to Elizabeth City, NC. From that point it will be unscheduled to allow for the group to decide. We will explore some of the small towns on the Albemarle or Pamlico Sounds before returning to Norfolk no later than May 18th.

If anyone wants to join for just the first part of the cruise, they could turn back after Elizabeth City and return by either the Dismal Swamp or the Virginia Cut.
